

Lambda Alpha International

November 18, 2015

BDC Mission

BDC serves as the economic development agency for the City of Baltimore.

Our mission is to:

- Retain existing businesses and assist in job expansion
- Attract new business opportunities
- Increase job opportunities for City residents
- Expand the tax base
- Support cultural resources

Key Economic Drivers

- Stable and Growing Population
- Strategic Location in the Mid-Atlantic & Other Assets
 - Within 30 miles of more than 60 federal agencies and research labs
 - Has one of 3 deep-water ports this side of Mississippi & most centrally located, proximity to BWI & Amtrak
 - Has 13 colleges & universities and 2nd only to San Francisco for fastest growing cities for tech talent
- 8th Largest Destination for Millennials in the Country
 - Millennials within 3 miles of City Center increased by 12,000
 - Increase of 92% from 2000 to 2010
- Employment Growth (2010-2013)
 - Private sector employment growth increased 6%
 - Persons with BA degree increased 16%
 - Persons with Grad or Professional degree increased 28%
- Increasing Wages (locally and nationally competitive)

Key Industry Sectors

- Financial and Professional Services
32,300 employees/2,400 firms
- Health and Bioscience Technology
66,400 employees/1,100 firms
- Arts, Culture, and Tourism
25,500 employees/3,000 firms
- Information and Creative Services
5,600 employees/830 firms
- Logistics
7,500 employees/260 firms
- Advanced Manufacturing
3,200 employees/125 firms

Conditions & Market Analysis

- Population

622,104 (growth from 2010)

23% of Baltimore MSA

- Race/Ethnicity

64% African American

4.6% Hispanic

- Workers

2/3rds of City workforce commutes into City

8.5% unemployment (Sept 2014)

29% have Bachelor's or higher (workers over age 25)

- Housing Affordability

Median home value is $150,000 (MD - $280,000)

Emphasis on Neighborhoods & Small Businesses

- Neighborhood Development – largest department within BDC and includes Geographic Teams, Retail & Main Streets, and Food Access
- BDC and Small Business Resource Center are focused on helping small businesses grow and thrive
- Added “Main Streets in the Community” program to bring BDC and SBRC services to neighborhoods around the city

Real Estate Development

- BDC provides a range of assistance to developers:
 - Technical
 - Transportation
 - Infrastructure
- Facilitate sale and redevelopment of City-owned property
- Other business assistance
 - FIG
 - Loans

Completed Sales of City Properties

- 101, 103 W. Lexington and 124 N. Liberty
- 119 Park Avenue
- 700 N. Eutaw

Pending Sales of Properties

- 1107 E. Fayette Street: Former Hendler Creamery Building
- 410 & 422 W. Mulberry Street
- Liberty Clay Marion properties

Recent RFPs Issued

- S. Gay Street
- Howard Street East
- Lexington-Howard
- 906 Washington Blvd

Cranes in the air

- Development continues at a rapid pace
- Despite recent events, vertical projects continue to move forward
- Developers are working with a sense of urgency and resolve to “build it now”

Projects in the pipeline

- Port Covington
- Stadium Square
- Canton Crossing II
- Canton Waterfront - COPT

Market-rate conversion projects

- Explosive growth in the number of residential projects
- Many are able to take advantage of the high performance market-rate tax credit program
- 2,800 market-rate apartments have been completed
- 2,400 under construction
- At least another 1,400 have been approved for construction

BDC Loan Programs

- Baltimore Micro Loan
 - From $5,000 to $30,000
 - Can be used for working capital, building improvements, equipment, inventory purchase and other costs associated with opening or expanding a small business
 - Gave 23 loans, which added 111 new jobs
 - For $500,000 in public investment, there was more than $2 million in capital investment
 - Majority of loans went to either a minority or women-owned business

BDC Loan Programs

■ VLT Loans

- For amounts between $30,000 and $300,000
- Specifically for small, minority or women-owned businesses
- Can be used for business acquisition; commercial real estate acquisition; the purchase of furniture, fixtures and equipment; leasehold improvements, and working capital
- Awarded $1.750 million during the second round of VLT funding