

Kimberly Clark

Executive Vice President

Baltimore Development Corp.

Kimberly Clark's position with the Baltimore Development Corp. allows her to embrace the role of mentor and counsel, drawing on her years of hard work and dedication to help the city and its institutions. She has helped increase the number of women involved in real estate development through the Partnership Forum, a group she has overseen for three years.

Clark is a board member with both Leadership Maryland and the Baltimore Office of Promotion and the Arts as well as the second vice president with the Star Spangled Banner Flag House. She received a Mayor's Recognition Award in 1999 for her efforts to better the Baltimore Community.
