

Member of the Year Award

to be presented at the Baltimore Chapter's Annual Dinner November 16, 2016

The Awardee must be a Lambda Alpha International member and will be selected based upon the Nominee's commitment to Lambda Alpha International, to the individual's profession and to land economics with respect to achievement in the private or public sector(s), research and/or education.

Call for Nominations:

The Baltimore Chapter will announce its call for nominations by e-mail to its membership by October 17, 2016, and in person at the October Program luncheon meeting.

Deadline:

Nominations must be submitted on or before close of business on October 31, 2016 to the Chapter President, Susannah Bergmann by e-mail, sbergmann@kaliberconstructioninc.com

Baltimore Awards Committee:

The Chapter President has appointed a Committee to evaluate the nominations and notify her by November 4, 2016 of the recommended Awardee. Any questions, please contact Susannah Bergmann 443-465-6781.

Nomination Guidelines & Format:

In evaluating and comparing the credentials and experience of each of the nominees, the Committee will use the following as guidelines to make a recommendation for the Baltimore Chapter's Member of the Year Award. The Awardee must be a Lambda Alpha International member and will be selected based upon the Nominee's commitment to LAI, to the individual's profession and to land economics with respect to achievement in the private or public sector(s), research and/or education. Self-nominations are accepted.

Please submit written document (maximum two pages) outlining reasons for the nomination, using the following guidelines. Also include the Nominee's complete contact information, as well as the nominating person's name and complete contact information.

1. Direct affiliation with LAI at local chapter level? Other LAI Chapters internationally?
2. Specific initiatives and/or achievements that had a direct impact on growth, structure, and engagement of the Baltimore Chapter.
3. Professional career in land economics (development, management, journalism, planning, architecture, engineering, creating incentives for investments, etc.).
4. Specific achievements accomplished over an extended period in the field of land economics as a public official, leader, volunteer or advocate.
5. Extent to which individual is recognized as an expert in land economics field as exemplified through scholarly and professional writings; participant in conferences and meetings as a speaker, and/or leadership of organizations involved in land economics.

Award:

This award to be presented to the Awardee at the November 16, 2016 Baltimore Chapter's Annual Dinner.

In addition, the Baltimore Chapter Member of the Year Awardee's name will be submitted to Lambda Alpha International for consideration for the International Member of the Year Award. This International award is selected from Chapter nominations of Chapter Member of the Year honorees for the current or prior year by the International Awards Committee. To view previous award winners please visit <https://www.lai.org/awards>